

Family Life Bible Quizzing

Policy for Table Officials/ Coaches/Assistant Coaches

Those individuals of quizzing age will be encouraged to participate as quizzers. Once a quizzers has graduated from high school, they are eligible to continue quizzing at the local level until their 20th birthday. If they choose not to quiz following graduation, they are eligible to volunteer as a scorekeeper or timekeeper, with the approval of the Bible Quiz Leadership Team (BQLT).

To be eligible to volunteer as a quiz master, a person must be a high school graduate and submit under the training and supervision of veteran Quiz Masters for at least one season. The BQLT reserves the right to final authority of approved Quiz Masters.

To be eligible to volunteer as a coach, a person must be a high school graduate. If a person is under 20 years old, it is strongly recommended they serve with an assistant who is at least 21 years old. The BQLT has final approval of coaches.

To serve as a coach at nationals will be at the discretion of the BQLT.